Danville Youth Council hosts a FREE gift-wrapping event

As we head into the holiday season, and get into gift-buying mode, Tthe Danville Youth Council invites all Town of Danville residents to live locally, and shop downtown in Danville stores, and receive gift wrapping by our DYC teens.

The Danville Youth Council is a group of middle and high school students who work to improve the community and represent the interests of their peers in the Danville area.

On Saturday December 15, 2018, 15th from 1:00 p.m. — 4:00 p.m. members of thepm Danville Youth Council will be gift wrapping all of your fun purchases for free. DYC will be begift wrappingg with colorful wrapping and tissue paper and holiday bows inside Stone Cold Luxe, located at 166 E. Prospect Ave in the heart of downtown Danville.

For more information please contact Jessica Wallner, program supervisor, at jwallner@danville.ca.gov.
