- d. Considered meeting with other commissions and boards in Danville for next year.
2. Danville Goes Global Report: Fliers have been posted on the Parents of SRVUSD Facebook and on Peachjar, and shared with school representatives for distribution. This subcommittee met with the chair for the Greenbrook Goes Global event, who suggested circulating the flier as soon as possible and having at least ten booths for maximum success. Primos has agreed to sponsor this event, and the crafts have been finalized.
3. Library Liaison Report: The library is currently promoting the social media ambassador program. The Teen Advisory Board will have their spring event in May, which will include a greater community service project. On Friday, June 8, the Danville Library and Town of Danville will have an event to kick off their summer reading themes ("Find your Voice" and "Bound for Books").
4. Commissioners Reports: Today, March 13, was the town council and commissions workshop. At their last meeting on Wednesday, March 8, the Arts Advisory Board and the Parks, Recreation, and Arts commission discussed renovations to Diablo Vista Park.
