Danville Police Investigating Sunday Explosion

Two vehicles damaged in incident in Smart & Final parking lot

Danville Police are looking for suspects in a Sunday evening incident where two vehicles were damaged in the Smart & Final parking lot, 460 Diablo Road.

Police Chief Allan Shields said officers were dispatched to the scene at approximately 7:12 p.m. on Sunday, May 27, 2018. On arrival officers found that an unknown device exploded, causing minor damage to two vehicles in the parking lot. No injuries were reported in the incident.

Danville PD investigators examined the scene, and are working to determine the cause as well as persons associated with the small explosion.

At this time, no information on suspects is available for release.

Anyone with information on this incident is encouraged to contact Lt. Doug Muse at (925) 314-3700 or dmuse@danville.ca.gov.
