‘Putnam County Spelling Bee’ Opens in One Week Town Embarks on Musical at the Village Theatre

In just one week, the renowned musical comedy The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee will take the stage at the Village Theatre & Art Gallery.

Meet six mid-pubescents as they compete to become the spelling bee champion. “Life is Pandemonium” for these spellers as they express their hysterical woes and touching narratives through music all while hoping to never hear that dreadful “ding” that ends their chances at the title. Six spellers enter, only one will leave as champion.

Tickets are available for this fun musical comedy. Shows are scheduled for September 28-30, 2018 and October 4-6, 2018 at the Village Theatre & Art Gallery, 233 Front St. For show times and ticket information, visit www.danville.ca.gov/villagetheatre.

This production features the talents of Zach Marshall, Micaela Groman, Alex Borja, Hayley Kennen, Kristen Torkildson, Emily Shea, Shauna Shoptaw, Noah Blechman, Tyrone Woodrow, Emler Strasser, and directed by Mike Kasin.

This play may have some mature themes and minor language; parental guidance is recommended.
