Exhibition Period: September 16-December 11, 2020
Juror: TBD

Theme: California Dreaming, Finding Beauty in My Own Backyard

For those of us lucky enough to call California home, we are fortunate to be surrounded by the natural beauty of our great state. California presents opportunities for daily awe in every direction we look: from the majestic mountain ranges to the roaring sea, the redwood trees, the deep valleys with flowing rivers and an explosion of color in the wildflowers that grace the green hillsides, to dramatic deserts spotted with cacti and boulders, we are in no shortage of beauty here.

Covid-19 has changed life for all of us, some more than others. People are experiencing a new kind of life while sheltering in place. This time has allowed many people to see their world with a new perspective. The world has never needed art so much as it needs it now. Artists can give the gift of beauty through their lens to share with others, to offer a reprieve from the uncertainty and unknowns we are all living through. Art can be healing in a time of chaos. Calling all artists, now is the time to share your artistic gifts and show us the beauty you have found in your own backyard....Show us what you love about this gorgeous and inspiring state.
